This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE
Mr. Sexton: "May I ask you, Sir, looking at the delay in forming a quorum, is it not within your competence to direct the Sergeant-at-Arms to require the attendance of Members who may be sitting on Committees, or others who may be wasting time in other parts of this building?"

Mr. SPEAKER—
"Members sitting on Committees have had their attention drawn in the usual way, by the ringing of the bell, to the fact that the House was being counted with a view to form a quorum. If those Members please to come down from the Committee Rooms they may do so, but it would be a strong step on my part to interrupt in the way suggested what may be very important proceedings in Committee. I will, however, let those Members know that the House is waiting for a quorum. The Sergeant-at-Arms will inform Members of Committees that the House has been long waiting for a quorum."—18 May [Vol. 4] 1181

[cont.

EXPULSION OF A MEMBER

Mr. SPEAKER acquainted the House that he had received the following letter from Mr. Justice A. L. Smith, relating to the imprisonment of Mr. George Woodyatt Hastings, a Member of this House:—

"Central Criminal Court,
City of London, E.C.,
11 March, 1892.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that Mr. George Woodyatt Hastings, Member of Parliament, has been tried before me today, and convicted of having fraudulently converted to his own use property of which he was possessed as trustee, for which offence I have sentenced him to five years' penal servitude.

I have the honour to remain,
Your obedient servant,
A. L. SMITH.

To the Right Honble. The Speaker."

—14 March [Vol. 2] 735

Mr. SPEAKER—

"With reference to the Motion standing at the head of the Orders of the Day—Mr. Hastings—Motion for his expulsion—I beg to inform the House that I have received through the Home Office a letter from Mr. Hastings, which I think it my duty to read to the House. It is as follows":—

"18 March, 1892.

Sir,

I have had the honour to receive a report of the proceedings taken by the House consequent on a report made to them by Mr. Justice A. L. Smith.

I am desirous of respectfully representing to the House that while I thought it right to plead guilty to the indictment preferred against me, as I had undoubtedly disposed of trust property without due regard to the provisions of the will under which it came into my hands, I nevertheless did so without any intention of appropriating the money to my own use, or of wilfully defrauding any person.

I further would respectfully ask the House to take into consideration that I have, during several Sessions of the present Parliament, devoted no small amount of time and labour, I may venture to hope with some success, to the important task of presiding over the proceedings of the Police and Sanitary Regulations Bills Committee of the House.

I venture to express a hope that the House will take my humble services into its generous consideration.

I remain, Mr. Speaker,
Your most obedient Servant,
G. W. HASTINGS.

To the Right Honourable the Speaker of the House of Commons.

Mr. Sexton: "I submit, on the grounds of convenience and practice, that until the reasons upon which the Notice of Motion for expulsion is based are placed upon the Paper, no action can be taken by the House."

Mr. A. J. Balfour: "Upon the point of Order, Mr. Speaker, may I remind you, Sir, that I did give Notice of the full terms of my Resolution? I do not know by what accident the full terms do not appear upon the Paper."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Sufficient notice has been given and the usual course has been followed. But I may remind the hon. Gentleman that expulsion has taken place without the grounds being previously placed upon the Paper. This is not an Order of the Day, but a question of Privilege, which is fixed before the Orders of the Day, and the hon. Gentleman will recollect that I did not call upon the Clerk at the Table to read the Orders of the Day. The whole of the circumstances of this case are before the House."

Mr. Sexton: "May I remind you, Sir, that the terms of a Resolution of expulsion have always appeared upon the Orders of the Day?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I beg the hon. Member's pardon; that is not so."—21 Mar [Vol. 2] 1339

PRIVILEGE

Protection of Witnesses before Committees

Sir M. Hicks Beach: "On Saturday last (2 April) a Special Report of the Select Committee on the Hours of Railway Servants, together with the evidence, was circulated to hon. Members, from which they will have seen that the Committee have reported that a certain railway servant, John Hood, was dismissed by the Directors of the Cambrian Railway Company mainly in consequence of charges arising out of the evidence which he gave before the Committee last year, and for which he was subsequently called to account and censured by some of the Directors and by the Manager of the Company. As Chairman of the Committee, I wish to give notice that it is my intention to call the attention of the House to that Report as a question of Privilege. Since that Report was presented the Committee have had before them two other cases in which it is alleged that certain railway servants belonging to the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants have been dismissed from their offices in that Society, or otherwise injured, on account of the evidence given before the Committee. The Committee are now examining these cases, and will, I hope, shortly decide whether or not they shall make a Special Report upon them. Therefore, I do not now name a day upon which I shall call attention to this first Special Report, because I think it would be for the convenience of the House and fairer to all parties that the whole subject should be considered together; but I hope there will be no unnecessary delay in the matter. . . . The Special Report already presented deals with all the cases of alleged intimidation that have been brought forward by one side. The Committee are now engaged in considering and taking evidence upon other cases of the same kind which have been brought forward by the other side; and, as Chairman of the Committee, I think that both these cases should be considered together, instead of the House being asked to entertain the question of Privilege on two different occasions."—4 April [Vol. 3] 597

Mr. Robertson: "I should like to ask you, Sir, as a point of order, is it not a Rule of this House that no reference should be made here to proceedings before Committees upstairs until the Committee have reported to the House? The right hon. Gentleman has mentioned a fact known to him and to the Committee, but not known to the House, as to certain proceedings now taking place."

[cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I understand the right hon. Gentleman to say that the Committee have reported upon a case which they think touched upon Privilege, and that they are now discussing another case, which might also be one of Privilege, and that it might be for the convenience of the House to discuss them together. I know nothing of the special case before the Committee; but as to the question of Privilege there must, of course, be no undue delay in the discussion of such a question. The Privilege, however, will, of course, adhere to the question when it comes before this House."

Mr. Morton: "May I ask you, Sir, whether it would be in order for any Member of this House to bring a question of breach of Privilege before the House?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Any Member can bring such a question before the House, but it would be for the House to decide whether it should be dealt with."—4 April [Vol. 3] 598

[Later] Mr. Philipps: "I should like to ask why, as in the case of the forged letters to the Times, the question of Privilege should not have been brought forward, to be dealt with as soon as possible after the offence had been committed?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"There is no sort of parallel between the cases."—4 April [Vol. 3] 599

On 5 April, Special Report from the Select Committee on Railway Servants (Hours of Labour) read, as followeth:—

"Your Committee, having considered a letter dated 21 February, 1892, from Mr. Harford, General Secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, and printed in Appendix A., alleging that certain witnesses who had given evidence before them during the last Session of Parliament had been dismissed from their employment in consequence of the evidence they gave, and that other witnesses would be thereby deterred from giving evidence to your Committee, thought it their duty to inquire into the said allegations. Your Committee thereupon examined the following witnesses, who have been reduced or dismissed—namely, John Hood, Edward Kingstone, Alfred Thomas, and Henry Spink, and further took evidence upon the same subject from James Humphreys, John Conacher, Samuel Williamson, John Stokes, James Frederick Buckley, James Thompson, William Birt, John Henry Nettleship, Charles Alfred Randall, Mark Negus, and George Charles Tayerner, whose evidence is appended to this Report."

Your Committee report:—

"(1) That the aforesaid allegations in reference to the witnesses Edward Kingstone, Alfred Thomas, and Henry Spink, were unfounded.

(2) That the witness John Hood was, by a resolution of the Directors of the Cambrian Railway Company, at a meeting held on the 6th day of August last, dismissed from the service of the Company, mainly in consequence of charges arising out of the evidence given by him before your Committee, and laid before the Directors by John Conacher, then manager of the said Railway; and further, that James Frederick Buckley, John William Maclure (a Member of this House), and William Bailey Hawkins, Directors of the said Company, and the said John Conacher, did, at a meeting at Crewe on the 30th September, 1891, held in consequence of an application by the said John Hood for the rehearing of his case, at which the said John Hood was present, call him to account, and censure him for the evidence he gave before your Committee, in a manner calculated to deter other railway servants from giving evidence before your Committee.

Your Committee have not deemed it to be part of their duty to express any opinion as to how far the conduct of the said John Hood, and the irregularities disclosed by his evidence, as well as the character of his evidence, were calculated properly to forfeit the confidence of the Directors of the Cambrian Company.

24th March, 1892."

Special Report considered.

Sir M. Hicks Beach: "It is now my duty, in accordance with precedent, to move—'That Mr. John William Maclure do attend this House in his place on Thursday next. That Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher do attend this House on Thursday next, at Three of the clock.'"

Mr. Radcliffe Cooke: "As a question of Order, Mr. Speaker, I beg to suggest that we ought to take this Report into consideration and come to some decision upon it before we summon people to the Bar of this House, because they may well ask what they are summoned here for. It is an arbitrary and absolute power that we have, and I think we ought not to exercise it except against those who have committed a breach of the Privileges of this House; and although we have taken this Report, and it has been laid on the Table of the House, we have not affirmed the principle that these persons named in this Report have committed any breach of the Privileges of this House. I ask you, therefore, whether there is not a link in the chain wanting, and whether we ought not to take this Report into consideration, and go further, and say that So-and-So—the persons named—have committed a breach of the Privileges of this House; and after this we shall be in a proper position to summon them to the Bar of the House."

[cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The House is asked to act, I imagine, on the Special Report of the Committee who have specially inquired into the allegations which were made before them of intimidation of witnesses. These gentlemen are asked to appear at the Bar of this House in order to state anything they may have to say in their defence, or in mitigation or excuse. After hearing these gentlemen the House will decide whether what they have said is any mitigation or excuse of the offences charged against them, and will decide what action they think it right to take, and will instruct me accordingly."

Mr. Radcliffe Cooke: "I venture to call your attention to the fact that the Committee have not come to any decision on the point. The Committee have said that So-and-So have done certain things calculated to deter witnesses from giving evidence before the Committee. I say that this is not a breach of the Privileges of this House, because the Committee left it expressly to this House to affirm that principle; and I venture again respectfully to ask you whether we are in Order in summoning to the Bar of this House persons of whom we have not said yet that they have committed a breach of the Privileges of this House?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Member will observe that the Committee have not decided that any breach of Privilege has been committed, but only that action has been taken by certain gentlemen which is calculated, in their opinion, to intimidate witnesses. It is upon that allegation that the House would like to hear the gentlemen who are referred to in the Report in order to know whether they can say anything in excuse or mitigation of the allegation which is charged against them. I do not think that any injustice can be done to any gentlemen by asking them to attend at the Bar of this House."

Motion agreed to, 5 April [Vol. 3] 701

7 April, Order read, for the attendance of Mr. John William Maclure, a Member of this House, and of Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Is it your pleasure that these gentlemen be called in? I have to ask, first, whether the hon. Gentleman the Member for the Stretford Division of South East Lancashire is in his place?"

Mr. John William Maclure rose in his place, bowed to the Chair, and remained standing.

Mr. SPEAKER—

Order, order! Will the Serjeant-at-Arms see that Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher do appear at the Bar."

The Bar being then drawn, the Serjeant-at-Arms escorted thereto the three gentlemen named, who made their obeisance to the Chair.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Order! Order! Mr. John William Maclure, you have been ordered to attend in your place, and you, Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher, have been summoned to appear at the Bar of this House in consequence of a Special Report made by a Committee of this House. That Committee was appointed to inquire into the hours of labour of railway servants, and in the course of their inquiry it came to their knowledge that allegations were made that certain persons had been reduced or dismissed from the service of the Company in consequence of the evidence they had given before the Committee. The other cases were dismissed by the Committee, after inquiry, as being unfounded; but in the case of one person, John Hood, the Committee found that he was dismissed by the Company mainly in consequence of charges arising out of the evidence given by him before the Committee. You, Mr. John Conacher, laid the evidence (so the Committee have found) before the Directors of the Company, and you, the Directors of the Company who are now present (so the Committee have found), when John Hood asked for a re-hearing of the case, called him to account, and you censured him for the evidence which he gave before the Committee, in a manner calculated to deter other railway servants from giving evidence before a Committee of this House. I believe it is the wish of the House to hear anything that any of you may now say in answer to these findings of the Committee."

Mr. John William Maclure having expressed regret if, by the course adopted, any Rules or Privileges of the House had been unintentionally infringed, and asked the House to accept his apology—in which Mr. James Frederick Buckley, on Mr. Speaker's invitation, expressed concurrence—Mr. Speaker directed the gentlemen summoned to the Bar to then withdraw—

Whereupon, Reso. (Sir Michael Hicks Beach)

To which, after Debate, Amendment (Mr. T. P. O'Connor) [Vol. 3] 890

After further Debate, on reference by Sir George Trevelyan to evidence given before the Select Committee [Vol. 3] 893—

Mr. A. E. Gathorne-Hardy, rising to Order, said: "I wish to ask you, Mr. Speaker, whether the right hon. Gentleman is in Order in anticipating the Report of the Committee as to the hours of labour, which they were not able to present?"

[cont.
[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The right hon. Gentleman is in Order, so far as it bears on the case, in calling attention to anything that was placed before the Committee. The right hon. Gentleman is perfectly in Order in referring to it up to the day on which this gentleman was dismissed from his service."

Mr. A. E. Gathorne-Hardy: "With great respect, Mr. Speaker, I rise again, to ask whether the right hon. Gentleman is in Order in anticipating the decision of the Committee with regard to the question of the hours of labour in the case of the Cambrian or any other railway?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The right hon. Gentleman would not be in Order in anticipating the ultimate decision of the Committee as to the question of the hours of labour. That is not the Question before the House." [Vol. 3] 893

Mr. Milvain following with other references to the evidence [Vol. 3] 903

Mr. Heneage said: "Mr. Speaker, I wish to ask whether the hon. Gentleman is entitled to go into all these facts? If so, we shall have a week's debate."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"That is entirely a matter for the discretion of this House. I quite agree with the right hon. Gentleman that it may be inconvenient to travel into all the details, but it is not for me to indicate the direction in which the discretion of any hon. Member may be limited in discussing the Special Report and the evidence contained in it." [Vol. 3] 904

After further debate,

Mr. Picton (Leicester): "If I am in Order, of which I am not certain, I should like to move an Amendment to the Amendment."

Mr. SPEAKER—

It would be in Order." [Vol. 3] 951

At 11.25, Mr. A. J. Balfour rose in his place, and claimed to move, "That the Question be now put,"

Question put, "That the Question be now put."

Dr. Clark (speaking seated): "May I ask you, Sir, if, before you put the Main Question, it will be in Order to move an Amendment which I had intended to move in reference to imprisonment?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"No, that would not be in Order; the House will proceed to a decision on the Main Question."

Mr. Robertson (speaking seated): "May I ask you, Sir, whether the Main Question can now be put without a previous Motion being carried?"

[cont.

SPEAKER The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Motion for putting the Question being carried applies to the Questions put from the Chair. This Question with the others has been put from the Chair."

Mr. T. M. Healy: "Does it follow that the Question is put on the Motion of the right hon. Gentleman?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"It is claimed and put if allowed. I allow it."

Main Question put accordingly. (Loud cries of "No.")

Dr. Tanner: "No humbug!"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Order, order! With regard to the expression just used, I refrain from naming the hon. Gentleman who used it, because on an occasion such as this I do not wish to take any strong measures. I hope the House will behave to the end in a judicial spirit."

Resolved, "That this House, while recognising that Mr. John William Maclure, Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher have disclaimed any intention to deter any railway servants from giving evidence before its Committee, and have expressed their unqualified regret for having unintentionally infringed any of its Rules and Privileges, is of opinion that the said Mr. John William Maclure, Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher have committed a breach of the Privileges of this House in their action towards John Hood, and that they be called in and admonished by Mr. Speaker for the breach of Privilege that they have committed."

Mr. John William Maclure, Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher were accordingly called in, and Mr. Maclure standing in his place, and Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher, standing at the Bar, were admonished as followeth: [Vol. 3] 962

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Directors of the Cambrian Railway Company: the House has had under its consideration the case which has been presented to it, and I am now directed to inform you of the Resolution at which it has arrived. I will read to you the words of that Resolution:—'This House, while recognising that Mr. John William Maclure, Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher have disclaimed any intention to deter any railway servant from giving evidence before its Committee, and have expressed their unqualified regret for having unintentionally infringed any of its Rules and Privileges, is of opinion that the said Mr. John William Maclure,

[cont.

Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Conacher, have committed a breach of the Privileges of this House in their action towards John Hood, and that they be called in and admonished by Mr. Speaker for the breach of Privilege that they have committed.'

"It now becomes my duty, as the mouthpiece of the House, and as the interpreter of its wishes, to state to you what is the opinion of the House upon your conduct. It is quite true that you have made an apology to the House for the undoubted breach of its Privileges. I need hardly tell you that a mere apology does not always cover the extent and surface of an offence; but the House has taken a lenient view in that respect of your conduct, and has expressed in its Resolution its willingness to accept your apology. But that is not all. The House has directed me to admonish you for a grave breach of the Privileges of this House. I would have you know,—each and all of you gentlemen,—that though the Privileges of this House are not to be put into operation upon any light or trivial occasion, and though the intervals are long between the periods when appeals are made to those Privileges, yet a Privilege of this House is no unreal, shadowy, or unsubstantial thing; it is what the House clings to, and what it is determined to maintain. The breach of Privilege which you have committed is, that you have by your conduct intimidated a witness before this House; that your conduct towards him is calculated to deter witnesses in giving evidence before this House or its Committees. So dear is that especial Privilege to this House, that I must remind you that at the commencement of every Session, and therefore at the commencement of this Session, on the very first day of its meeting, two Resolutions were passed by this House, in one of which it declared, 'That if it shall appear that any person hath given false evidence in any case before this House, or any Committee thereof, this House will proceed with the utmost severity against such offender.' The second of those Resolutions expresses the determination of the House, 'That if it shall appear that any person hath been tampering with any witness in respect of his evidence to be given to this House or any Committee thereof, or' (and this is the point to which I would especially direct your attention) 'directly or indirectly hath endeavoured to deter or hinder any person from appearing or giving evidence, the same is declared to be a high crime and misdemeanour, and this House will proceed with the utmost severity against such offender.' Those are Resolutions which are fresh in the memory of this House, and which I am surprised that those gentlemen whom I now see before me at the Bar should have so lightly infringed. It is a very grave and serious offence that you have committed. The House in its judgment and, I should add, in its mercy has decided that I should admonish you. I do most seriously admonish you, and I warn you that any repetition of this offence, for it is an offence, will be visited by this House with its very severe rebuke, reproval, and punishment. A great principle has been infringed, the principle that evidence given before this House shall be free and unrestrained. I warn you against repeating an offence of this character. The offence is a very serious one, for it is no less an offence than trying, however unadvisedly it may be in certain cases, to deter witnesses from giving evidence before a Committee of this House, and thus to disturb and taint the very sources of truth. I believe I act, as I wish to act, as the interpreter of the feelings of this House when I seriously admonish you, and express the hope that your example will serve as a deterrent to others, and that it will also act as a warning to yourselves never again to presume to commit the like offence against the character, the dignity, and the purity of this House."

Then Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. James Conacher were ordered to withdraw, and they withdrew accordingly.

Sir M. Hicks Beach: "I now beg to move, 'That the admonition delivered by Mr. Speaker be entered upon the Journals of this House.'"

Mr. T. M. Healy: "May I ask, as a point of Order, is that consequential business?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Yes; and I hope the House will allow the remarks which it was my duty to deliver to be entered on the Journals of the House."

Motion agreed to.

Ordered, That the admonition delivered by Mr. Speaker be entered upon the Journals of this House.—7 April [Vol. 3] 964

RULINGS

Mr. J. G. S. Mac Neill: I will now proceed, with the permission of the House, to move the Amendment I have upon the Paper."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Amendment which appears on the Paper contains a number of subjects it would not be proper to move upon an Address to the Queen's Speech. What I wish to point out to the hon. Member is that some portions of his Amendment are not relevant."—12 Feb [Vol. 1] 396

Mr. J. E. Redmond: "I beg to move that the Question be now put."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Considering that this Debate has only lasted for one hour since the time when the hon. Member who introduced the Bill sat down, and other hon. Members have risen to speak on both sides of the House, I think further time should be allowed for the discussion of the Bill." — 17 Feb [Vol. 1] 661

[cont.

[cont.

Mr. A. O'Connor: "Mr. Speaker, I would wish to ask you, Sir, in the case of varying and doubtful texts, or an official issue being made of certain words, is it competent for any Department to direct the printers to alter the text without the authority of an Act of Parliament?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I think the proper test to apply would be whether there were any error either here or in the House of Lords. There has been no error. The Clerk in this House and the Clerk in the House of Lords made the proper entry, and the defect arose purely from an error of the draftsman, which perhaps he had been led into. The true record is the signed copy of the Act, which is perfectly correct."—18 Feb [Vol. 1] 688

Petition against Opium Trade read by Clerk at the Table. Mr. Mac Neill: "I beg to ask you, Mr. Speaker, can this Petition be placed on the Minutes of the House, and appear as part of our proceedings?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"It will be treated as Petitions are treated—in the ordinary way."—19 Feb [Vol. 1] 810

Mr. Chance: "That the Bill be referred to a Hybrid Committee of seven Members, and that the Committee have power to appoint the hon. Member for West Belfast as one of the Members."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The proper course is to wait until the Bill is committed. When the Bill is committed, it can then be settled what proportion of Members shall constitute the Hybrid Committee."—26 Feb [Vol. 1] 1362

Referring to Mr. H. Gardner.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Member has no right of reply, as there is no Amendment before the House."—26 Feb [Vol. 1] 1425

Mr. W. Johnston: "The sharp practice of the hon. Member, &c."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I do not think that the hon. Member should use such a phrase. Such an expression cannot be permitted."—26 Feb [Vol. 1] 1432

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. T. M. Healy: "I should like to ask you, Mr. Speaker, whether it is not always the practice of the Government on Fridays to set up Supply a second time?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"That entirely depends upon the Government, and the time of night."—26 Feb [Vol. 1] 1447

Mr. Boulnois: "If, Sir, I do not oppose the Second Reading of the Bill now, and wish to move the Reference of the Bill to a Hybrid Committee, should I be able to make that Motion now or at a later day?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Bill, if unopposed, will be read a second time and referred to an ordinary Select Committee. It will be open to the hon. Member to move the discharge of the Order for reference to a Select Committee, and to move that the Bill be referred to a Hybrid Committee."

Mr. Boulnois: "Shall I be able to do that now if the Second Reading is unopposed?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Question now is the Second Reading, and whether this is opposed or not, a subsequent Motion may, as Opposed Business, be deferred to a later day."

[Later] Mr. Boulnois: "I give notice that to-morrow I shall make the Motion for the reference of the Bill to a Hybrid Committee."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Member should in terms make his Motion now."—3 March [Vol. 1] 1772

Mr. A. J. Balfour: "It may be convenient for the House if I were to ask you, Sir, what interpretation should be put upon the phrase 'financial business,' before it is adopted?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I think it is rather a matter for the House itself. But looking at the words which are used, I should say they included Supply, the Report of Supply, and the Ways and Means Bill; and unless a limitation 'until Easter' is introduced into the proposition, it will, of course, apply to the Budget. That would be the natural interpretation I should be disposed to put upon it; but it is a matter for the House, and I am not the arbiter of the question."—3 March [Vol. 1] 1808

Mr. Sexton: "I beg to move, after the word 'Friday,' to insert these words 'except Tuesday, 29th March.'"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"There is already a Motion before the House to restrict the operation of this

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Resolution until Easter, and that Resolution I will put from the Chair."—3 March [Vol. 1] 1814

Referring to Mr. Conybeare.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Member is discussing the merits of a particular Bill, and not the appropriation of a particular day."—3 March [Vol. 1] 1817

Mr. Cremer: "I understood that I should be able to move this Amendment."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"No; the hon. Member is precluded from so doing by having already spoken on the Main Question."—3 March [Vol. 1] 1820

Mr. Mac Neill, on the question of principle as to whether three Members, pecuniarily interested in Victoria Nyanza Railway Survey Vote, had any right to vote thereon, said: "I understand now that a question of Privilege, arising out of proceedings in Committee, should be raised with the Chairman in the Chair. . . . . I cannot argue the point with Mr. Speaker in the Chair—the point arose in Committee, and must be argued with the Chairman in the Chair."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I understand the hon. Gentleman desires to raise a point in Committee, which he was precluded from doing on Friday. I understand that the hon. Member desires that the House should express an opinion as to votes given on another occasion. It will be quite competent for the hon. Member to do that when the House next goes into Committee of Supply. He may then refer to the votes he wishes to challenge." —7 March [Vol. 2] 260

Mr. S. Leighton: "I believe that according to the Rules of the House a Bill, after it has been read a first time, should be in the possession of the House, not of some of its Members. . . . . I am told that the Bill has been very considerably altered from the Bill of last year, and I submit we should not be asked to proceed with the Second Reading now."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"What has passed shows the inconvenience of discussing a Bill only very recently in the hands of hon. Members. I cannot interfere, however, on a point of Order to stop the Debate, though, of course, it is an argument against a Second Reading Debate if hon. Members have an imperfect knowledge of the provisions of a Bill." —9 March [Vol. 2] 376

[Later on], Motion made, and Question proposed, "That the Debate be now adjourned."—(Mr. J. G. Talbot.)

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I made no complaint whatever against the hon. Member for pressing the Second Reading. What I said did not amount to so much as a suggestion to the hon. Member. In ordinary circumstances I should not consent to put the Motion for the Adjournment of the Debate; but I shall do so now, as I think it is essentially a matter for the House to decide, whether the comparatively short time that has elapsed since the Bill has been placed in the hands of hon. Members and the alterations that have been made in the measure since last Session would militate against the fair discussion of the Bill, and that it is proper that the discussion on the Second Reading should not now take place. The Question is that this Debate be now adjourned."—9 March [Vol. 2] 385

Mr. Mac Neill: "On a point of Order, I wish to ask whether it is in Order for one hon. Member to say that another hon. Member has made a statement which is untrue?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

The hon. Member has a right to say that a statement is untrue. There is no offence to the hon. Gentleman in that."—10 March [Vol. 2] 548

Later on to Mr. Mac Neill:

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Gentleman having obtained leave to move the Adjournment of the House in order to call attention to a definite subject is under obligation to keep closely to that subject. I am bound to say he is now speaking in the most discursive manner."—10 March [Vol. 2] 551

Mr. Conybeare suggesting an Amendment:

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I will not put the Motion. It is inconsistent with what the House has already passed. If the Amendment is added at the end of the Motion it will stultify the preceding part of it."—10 March [Vol. 2] 585, 586

Mr. J. Chamberlain: "There appears to be some difference of statement as to the right to be heard before this Committee. I beg to ask you, Sir, as the highest authority, whether such persons—namely, commoners and farmers having rights of user over the property—would not be entitled to be heard before a Hybrid Committee?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The matter is a difficult one, but my own opinion is that the Instruction is necessary from the point of view of those who have moved it, for this reason. No doubt the occupiers of the land would have a right of locus standi so far as any water abstracted from them might be in question; but when it came to their rights of common, then I think it might be a very grave question indeed whether they would have a locus standi, as appealing to the Committee on behalf of the common, as distinquished from their water rights. I know that all Petitions presented to the Committee might be considered, but I am not at all sure that a Hybrid Committee might not have power to reject a Petition, as I believe has once before been done some years ago. It is for that reason that I think—it may be out of abundance of caution, perhaps, but I still think—that the Instruction would be necessary from the point of view of those who have moved it." 11 March [Vol. 2] 626

[cont.

Referring to Instruction moved by Mr. Patrick O'Brien:

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Instruction standing in the name of the hon. Gentleman the Member for North Monaghan cannot come on to-day, because it would be postponed, necessarily, if it were in Order; but it is not in Order. There is nothing in the Eastbourne Improvement Act, 1885, nor in the precedent of the Belfast Act, which would warrant exempting a particular locality from the operation of the General Statute referred to. In the case of the Eastbourne Act, exceptional powers were granted to the Mayor and Corporation, but in this case exemption from a general Statute applicable all over the united Kingdom is supposed to be conferred upon a particular locality. That would contravene the general principle, and, I think, would be clearly out of Order."—11 Mar [Vol. 2] 627

Mr. Shaw Lefevre: "I rise to a point of Order. The hon. Member is going into a long discussion of the statement of the First Lord of the Admiralty, and is making no reference to the particular Motion now under notice. The proper time, I submit, for this discussion is when we get into Committee of Supply; and to adopt the course which the hon. Member is taking is, to say the least, inconvenient, inasmuch as it will result in two discussions instead of one. I do not quite know, Mr. Speaker, whether that is a point of Order or not, but I raise it for the convenience of the House."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I entirely concur with what the right hon. Gentleman has said, but I cannot stop the gallant Admiral on a point of Order. The question is purely one of convenience, and I do not see my way to stop the discussion."

Captain G. E. Price: "Is there any Motion before the House?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"There is the Question that I now leave the Chair."

Admiral Field: "Did I not move the Motion of which I had given notice?"

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Member could not move it."—14 March [Vol. 2] 786

Mr. Johnston: "I beg to propose that this Bill be read a first time this day six months."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"It is competent for the hon. Member who has brought forward the Motion to reply." 15 March [Vol. 2] 898

[Later] "Under the Standing Order relating to the introduction of Bills before the Orders of the Day are entered upon, I shall now put the Question, That leave be given to bring in this Bill."—899

Referring to Mr. Conybeare, on the Condemned Poachers:

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I should hope that any discussion on this painful case, and in reference to a judicial decision, will be conducted in a judicial spirit."—16 March [Vol. 2] 1032

Colonel Nolan on Teachers' Pension Fund, moving Adjournment of Debate:

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I shall not put that Question after the hon. and gallant Gentleman has spoken 40 minutes without alleging a single argument for Adjournment. His own speech is an argument against the Adjournment of the Debate."—17 March [Vol. 2] 1165

Mr. Sexton: "The Amendment I now beg to move——"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I am very sorry to interrupt the hon. Member, but I must inform him that he has already spoken on the Main Question."

Mr. Sexton: "I think, Sir, there is some misapprehension. In speaking before I supported the Motion for Adjournment."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Member for Tipperary (Mr. J. O'Connor) distinctly moved the Adjournment, and upon that Question no Member had a right to address the House until it was put from the Chair. It could not be put until seconded. The hon. Member seconded the Motion, speaking to the Question that the House do now adjourn. Having thus spoken, and on the Main Question then before the House, I am exceedingly sorry to inform the hon. Member that he would be out of Order in speaking again."

Mr. Sexton: "May I observe, Sir, that as I deliberately abstained from seconding the Motion for Adjournment, and as I informed the House I supported that Motion, was it not reasonable to suppose that I should have been reminded that I could not speak to the Motion until it had been seconded?"

[cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"If an hon. Member moves the Adjournment and another Member supports it, I have no option whatever. The hon. Member must have risen to second the Motion, and the Motion was not complete before the House until it was seconded."—17 March [Vol. 2] 1172

Dr. Clark: "I beg to propose, as an Amendment to the Question, 'That the House doth agree with the Committee'—'That this House declines to appropriate any amount of the Grant in Aid of Education in Ireland otherwise than towards the current use of education in Ireland.'"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Member would not be in Order in so doing. The Question which I have put from the Chair is that the House do agree with the Committee. The hon. Member can divide against that Motion."—17 March [Vol. 2] 1172

Mr. Sexton, answering Mr. A. J. Balfour, said: "The right hon. Gentleman sat in his place and silently saw me put to silence by the use of an Order of this House, which, if not strained, was certainly severe."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Order, order! I do not know to what the hon. Member refers by a 'severe exercise of an Order of the House.' I must ask the hon. Gentleman to explain what he means."

Mr. Sexton: "The explanation I have to give is that the Rule of the House which forbids a Member to speak twice on a question under Debate with the Speaker in the Chair—a Rule which, to my knowledge, is waived at every sitting of the House—was put in force in my case."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Order, order! The hon. Gentleman is entirely out of Order, and quite irregular in alluding, as he has done, to what occurred last night. I am in the recollection of a great proportion of those hon. Members now present that when that Amendment was moved I waited and called for a Seconder. The hon. Gentleman rose and said he supported the Amendment, and when he sat down I put the Question. Having seconded the Amendment, of course it was impossible for the hon. Member to speak again. When he passed my Chair I expressed my regret that under the circumstances he was not to be allowed to speak again if he wished. He said, as I understood, that he was under a misconception, but added he would rise in his place. When he did rise I told him, I hope courteously, that he was precluded from speaking again. What he means by 'an undue exercise of the Rules of the House' I am at a loss to conceive."—18 March [Vol. 2] 1202

[cont.

Mr. J. O'Connor: "I move a reduction in this Vote."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"On the Vote the hon. Gentleman would not be in Order in taking that course. The whole Vote has already been put to the House, and the Motion for reduction cannot, therefore, be entertained."—21 March [Vol. 2] 1401

Referring to Mr. S. Keay speaking on Indian Councils Act Amendment Bill:

Mr. SPEAKER

"The hon. Gentleman is not entitled to review the whole condition of India on a Bill of this kind. . . . . I am sorry to inform the hon. Gentleman that he is not touching the Bill before the House."

[Later] "The hon. Gentleman must obey my ruling."—28 March [Vol. 3] 108, 109

Mr. A. J. Balfour claimed, "That the original Question be now put."

Mr. Sexton: I wish to ask you, Sir, if the right hon. Gentleman is in Order in taking that course?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"There is no necessity for a further Motion; the Divisions already taken lead up to a decision on the Main Question."

Mr. Sexton: "What I wish to ask, Sir, is whether the Motion of the right hon. Gentleman is superfluous—whether the putting of the Main Question follows on the Original Motion for the Closure?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"There can be no further debate on the Main Question. The right hon. Gentleman having moved that the Question be now put, and that being carried applies to the Original Motion. The proceeding is in order. I am acting under the Standing Order of the House."

On Motion to refer same Bill to a Select Committee:

Colonel Nolan: "I should like to speak upon that Motion."

Mr. SPEAKER:

"Further proceedings stand over if objection is taken."—28 March [Vol. 3] 138

Dr. Clark: "Mr. Speaker, may I call attention to the second Order of the Day, 'Military Lands Consolidation Bill. Adjourned Debate on Motion for committing the Bill to a Select Committee'? That was proposed, I believe, after twelve o'clock. Am I to understand that this is an adjourned Debate, it being contentious Business after twelve o'clock"?

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"After the Second Reading of the Bill, the Member in charge stated what further action was proposed to be taken in regard to it. There might not have been any objection, but, he having proposed that the Bill be referred to a Committee, and objection being taken, I at once said that in the circumstances the Bill must stand over, and so it becomes from the necessity of the case an adjourned Debate."—29 Mar [Vol. 3] 165

On Instruction moved by Admiral Field:

Mr. SPEAKER—

"With unqualified respect for the opinion expressed by an authority in the House, I think, after hearing the doubts expressed on both sides of the House, it will be far better to send the Instruction to the Committee. The Bill repeals a clause in the Eastbourne Act in reference to processions on Sundays; and if the Committee or Chairman have any doubt as to whether their power extends to making any regulation on the subject for the peace of the borough, I think it would be far better that there should be an expression of the opinion of the House that they have that power to inquire into the question. It is not a mandatory Instruction; it is only a declaration that the Committee have the power, and, under the circumstances, I think it is expedient that the Instruction should be given."—31 Mar [Vol. 3] 324

On an alteration in the nomination of Members of a Select Committee, objected to by Mr. J. Chamberlain:

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The alteration has not been made in consultation with me; and certainly, as it stands, it is a new proposition, and if opposed must stand over for Monday."

Mr. J. Chamberlain: "I oppose it."

Mr. S. T. Evans: "It appears on the Paper 'by Order,' Mr. Speaker."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"It does not appear by Order in the altered form, and that it is so printed on the Paper is an error."

Mr. S. T. Evans: "By the indulgence of the House I may be allowed to say that I made the alteration to meet the view, as I thought, of the right hon. Gentleman himself, and if I may appeal to the right hon. Gentleman the matter might as well be discussed to-day."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Order, order! The matter is not one to be settled between the hon. Gentleman and the right hon. Gentleman, but is a matter for the House at large."—1 April [Vol. 3] 464

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. J. Chamberlain: "Before the hon. Member proceeds with his protest, I beg to ask you, Sir, whether it is in Order, seeing that it now appears for the first time on the Paper in the hon. Member's name, it having stood before in the name of the hon. Member for Glamorganshire"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"It would be hyper-criticism on my part if I were to take any objection, seeing that it is precisely the same Motion as on a previous occasion was deferred."—4 April [Vol. 3] 536

Mr. D. Thomas: "I beg to give notice that I shall to-morrow move that the hon. Member for Gateshead be discharged from serving on the Committee, and that the hon. Member for South Glamorgan be nominated in his stead."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I look with extreme jealousy on the House interfering with the Committee of Selection by discharging a Member who has been appointed by that Committee. That Committee is specially deputed by the House to make choice of Members to serve; but perhaps an amicable arrangement can be come to between the House and the Committee of Selection."—4 April [Vol. 3] 552

On Order for going into Committee,

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The only other Instruction standing on the Paper is unnecessary. What it proposes can be done in Committee without Instruction, so I now proceed to leave the Chair to complete the proceedings begun before midnight, and in pursuance of Standing Order No. 51."—4 April [Vol. 3] 669

Referring to Colonel Saunderson's remarks on Mrs. Montagu, and Mr. Conybeare on Fanny Gane's sentence,

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Order, order! The rule to be observed in putting a question which is on the Paper must also be observed when putting a question which is not on the Paper."—7 April [Vol. 3] 861

"That is an improper question to put. It is not permissible to question the decision of a Judge in that manner."—863

Order for Committee read.

Mr. Winterbotham rose to move, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"A point of procedure arises here which is, I think, a new one. I feel it would be rather hard to insist upon the application of the technical Rule that there being no Instruction to the Committee before the House I should immediately leave the Chair. Two Notices of Instructions were placed on the Paper late last night. The hon. Member has rather complained that he was not informed of the objection to his Motion, but it is no part of the duty of the Clerk to call attention to the terms of a Notice of Motion. The Instructions are out of Order, inasmuch as they are mandatory instead of being permissive; but, under the circumstances, I think I should be straining the Rule if I did not allow an opportunity for an Instruction to be moved. I am conscious that in so doing there may be a little unfairness to the advocates of the Bill, but the circumstances are peculiar, and I think it will be convenient if I do not now leave the Chair."

[cont.

Mr. Storey: "I thank you, Sir. Shall I be in Order if I move now"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"No; the hon. Gentleman will give notice." —7 April [Vol. 3] 965

On the following day, Order for Committee read.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The two Motions for Instruction to the Committee are both out of Order. I therefore leave the Chair."

[Later] Mr. T. M. Healy said: "I object. The hon. Member takes the first Wednesday after Whitsuntide Vacation. I object, and I understand that by the Standing Order if objection be taken at this stage the question stands over. I ask your ruling on the point."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"It is for the hon. Member in charge of the Bill to appoint the date when the Bill will be taken unless the House should decide otherwise."—8 April [Vol. 3] 1039

Sir J. GORST claimed to move, "That the Question be now put."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Motion for the Second Reading of the Bill has only been discussed for half an hour; but having regard to the manner in which the opposition has been conducted, I feel justified in putting the Question." —2 May [Vol. 3] 1860

Mr. Pritchard Morgan asking leave to move the Adjournment of the House,

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Member is not in Order. He has this evening got a Notice down traversing the Second Reading of a Bill on the Orders of the Day to the effect 'That, in the opinion of this House, no legislation will be satisfactory that does not deal fully with the administration of the Mines Royal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.'"

Mr. P. Morgan: "With the permission of the House I will withdraw the Motion."

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Order, order! The hon. Gentleman cannot do it."

Mr. P. Morgan: . . . "With your permission, I will move the Adjournment of the House for a personal explanation."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. Gentleman is not in Order. He complains of an expression used by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and there is no doubt that the Chancellor of the Exchequer will render an explanation of the expression which has given the hon. Gentleman offence." — 5 May [Vol. 190

Mr. Knox: "I wish to know whether it will be competent for any Member, upon this Motion being put, to give Notice to-day that on the Motion being put to-morrow he will move an Instruction"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Notice for an Instruction to a Standing Committee will not attach to any Order of the Day, but will be an independent Motion."

Mr. Sexton: "Then, if the Bill were referred to a Standing Committee, it would be competent afterwards to move an Instruction to the Committee"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"It would be perfectly in Order."

Mr. A. J. Balfour: "On a point of Order, and to prevent any misconception, do I understand your ruling to be that the Notice of Motion which is made by a private Member would stand with private Motions, and would come on with them, and would not come next in order to the Government Notice? I thought the hon. Gentleman gathered that he would have a right, if the Motion were carried, to move this Instruction. I understand your ruling to be that would not be so—that he would only have the privilege of a private Member, and would have to ballot for his place."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I said a Motion for an Instruction would be an independent Motion, without precedence."

Mr. Sexton: "Then, it will be merely a matter of chance, and the right of a Member to move an Instruction to a Committee of this House will be destroyed"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Notice will have to be given of the Instruction. The Motion will be subject to the ballot. I understand the hon. Member asked me as to a point of Order."

Mr. Sexton: "I wish to know whether it is in Order to move to discharge an Order in Committee upon a Bill the House has already gone into"?

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"It is unusual, but no progress was actually made."

Mr. Knox: "As it appears from the Notice Paper to-day, progress had actually been made with this Bill. The Chairman had reported Progress on the 4th April."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"That is the technical expression. The Chairman of Committees must report something. He reports 'Progress,' although no progress may have been actually made—no progress, in the present case, was actually made."—5 May [Vol. 4] 193

Mr. J. Morley: "I would suggest that it is possible, with the consent of the House, to now make a Motion postponing other Orders in favour of this. Perhaps, Mr. Speaker, you will tell me whether I am in Order"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"If it is the general wish of the House the First Lord of the Treasury can doubtless make such a Motion."—9 May [Vol. 4] 374

Mr. Conybeare: I move "That the Question be now put."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Debate is being conducted in a fair and legitimate manner, and as there is an evident desire to continue the discussion I cannot accept the Motion of the hon. Member."—11 May [Vol. 4] 648

Order for Com., Dublin Barracks Improvement Bill, read:—

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Instruction of which the hon. and learned Member for North Longford (Mr. T. M. Healy) has given Notice is not in Order, inasmuch as it involves a public charge."

Mr. Timothy Healy explained his proposal.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I am afraid the hon. and learned Member's explanation does not make the Instruction the more in Order. The Secretary of State can only recoup the ratepayers of Dublin from the public funds."

Mr. T. M. Healy: "May I ask you, Sir, if I would be in Order in moving the Instruction down as far as the word "barracks," leaving out the last line and a half, so that the Corporation may establish the amount they have expended"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. and learned Member may proceed so far."

[Later] Mr. Speaker—"Order, order! The hon. and learned Member is now speaking to the Amendment as a whole. He is arguing in favour of compensation being given from the Imperial Exchequer, and such a proposal, as I have informed the hon. and learned Gentleman, would not be in Order." [Vol. 4] 809

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

After further discussion,

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I have allowed the discussion to proceed, seeing that the Instruction in terms indicated the object as being to provide that the Dublin Corporation should show the amount expended upon the building. The last section of the Instruction given Notice of I have ruled out of Order, as involving a charge upon the Exchequer; but I now see, and it is evident from the speeches that have been delivered, that the same objection applies to the earlier part of the Instruction. With the interpretation put upon it, I am bound to say that the Instruction is not in Order."—12 May [Vol. 4] 812

Admiral Field: "That fair decision we have not had from my point of view, for I have shown that one Member was committed by his previous action in reference to Torquay."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The hon. and gallant Gentleman is not entitled to cast reflections on the action of Members on a Committee."—19 May [Vol. 4] 1278

On Superannuation Acts Amendment Bill, Com.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The question is as to what tribunal this Bill shall be referred; whether it shall be considered in Committee of the whole House, or whether it shall go to a Select Committee. The merits of the Bill are not under discussion, and the hon. and gallant Gentleman is therefore out of Order in discussing the merits of the Bill. —19 May [Vol. 4] 1310

Mr. Henniker Heaton: "I beg to call your attention, Sir, to the fact that the London County Council (Tramways) Bill was just now read a third time, notwithstanding the fact that there appear five Notices of opposition on the Notice Paper against the Motion for Third Reading."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The Order was called in the usual way, and no hon. Member raised any opposition to the Motion for Third Reading. The hon. Member was himself standing at the Bar when the Order was called, but no objection reached me. It is not in my power now to go back upon the decision of the House."—23 May [Vol. 4] 1510

Mr. Bartley: "On a point of Order, I would ask whether the expression just used can be withdrawn, as it has been freely stated across the floor of the House that 'he has got it out'"?

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I took notice of the expression, and, thinking that the question might be answered, I requested that a question put in that form should not be answered; and I meant thereby to mark my sense that the expression was unparliamentary and altogether unsuited to this House."—23 May [Vol. 4] 1522

Sir Wilfrid Lawson: "On a point of Order, may I respectfully ask whether the notice of Amendment to the Motion put on the Paper by the hon. Member for Stockport (Mr. Sydney Gedge) is in Order, and whether it can be discussed"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I should prefer to give my ruling when the question arises. But it appears to me that it is not in order on a Motion of that kind, which, for the convenience of the House, has a special precedence accorded to it, to move a "reasonable" Amendment, as a reason why the Motion should not be granted. It would be dragging the House into the discussion of a question utterly irrelevant to the subject, and it might lead to a long debate on a question of general morality not exclusively connected with the Derby Day."—30 May [Vol. 5] 224

Sir Henry James: "I rise to Order, Sir. We have now been occupied over an hour in discussing, on the Motion for Third Reading, a clause which has been withdrawn from the Bill. The matter was raised to meet some personal attack; but I ask you, Sir, whether it is in Order to carry on a protracted discussion on matter which is not contained in the Bill now before the House"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I have allowed the discussion to go on as long as it has done so as to permit of personal explanations. Then a question arose as to the circumstances under which a clause was withdrawn. Of course, a discussion of the circumstances under which a bridge was proposed to be built, and the application of the betterment principle to it, is unnecessary now, as the clause has been withdrawn from the Bill. —2 June [Vol. 5] 437

Mr. Henniker Heaton: "I appeal to the House and to you, Mr. Speaker, to say if this thing is to continue any longer?"

Mr. SPEAKER—

"I have never known a Bill on Report debated in this way. I have never known such elementary and long speeches made on every Amendment; and I must say that if this sort of thing continues the House has the remedy in its own hands." —2 June [Vol. 5] 505

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. Arthur O'Connor: "I wish to ask the Speaker whether it is in Order for the First Lord of the Treasury to introduce the Motion for Adjournment on the Paper in the middle of the Orders of the Day? It is necessary that a notice of that kind should be taken at the commencement of business. I would draw attention to the fact that on Tuesday, 24th May, 1880, the Adjourned Debate on the Parliamentary Oaths Bill stood first on the Paper, and that Mr. Speaker Brand then held that the Motion for Adjournment over the Derby Day, which stood lower on the Paper, had the precedence. A singular disadvantage would be attached to the arrangement if the matter were brought on at ten minutes to seven, and any hon. Member wished to move an Amendment to it.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"The ruling of my predecessor was given in 1882; but since that time, in 1888, a Standing Order has been passed allowing the Government to arrange its business, whether Orders of the Day or Notices of Motion, as they think fit, and that course has been followed on several occasions."

Mr. O'Connor: "May I ask whether the Motion could be proceeded with if it were taken at ten minutes to seven, and were unopposed"?

Mr. SPEAKER—

"No."—3 June [Vol. 5] 561

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Order, order! I am sorry to say that that addition would be an enlargement of the Instruction, which would require notice."

Mr. Sexton: "May I explain that without the addition I greatly fear the effect would be to defeat the object of the scheme of the Government? If notice be necessary, I would ask the right hon. Gentleman to postpone his Instruction."

Mr. SPEAKER—

"Probably the preferable course would be to put off the Instruction until the Amendment can be moved. Will the hon. Gentleman give notice now?"

Mr. Sexton: "Yes, I give notice now."—3 June [Vol. 5] 562

Mr. Labouchere: "With your permission, Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask whether any report is to be made to the House as to the retirement of the Chairman of the Committee upon the North Eastern Railway Company's Bill for the purchase of the Hull Docks and other purposes, after the hearing of the whole of the evidence; and what effect the withdrawal of the Chairman has had on the finding of the Committee?"

[cont.

SPEAKER, The—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—

"In reply to the question of the hon. Member, I have to say that a few minutes before the Committee sat on Friday the hon. Gentleman the Member for West Islington (Mr. Richard Chamberlain) came to me and informed me that he was under some doubt as to his being qualified to adjudicate on the Bill in consequence of some interest he had in, I think, the North Eastern Railway Company, who are promoters, I believe, of the Hull Docks Bill. I had no time to refer to any precedents; the Committee was about to sit, and I recommended the hon. Member to take the course I should have considered it my duty to take under like circumstances, having doubt as to my competency to adjudicate upon a Bill. I had the less doubt in recommending him to take that course, inasmuch as his withdrawal would not in any way invalidate the proceedings of the Committee; and the three hon. Gentlemen left on the Committee—the Chairman having withdrawn from adjudication and taking no further part in the proceedings—would be competent to choose another Chairman in his place, and proceed to deal with their Report. This they did, and, as I am informed, threw out the Bill. A Report has, in accordance with the regulations of the House, been made to the House that Mr. Richard Chamberlain—'Having stated he was unable to take further part in the proceedings of the Committee on account of his being a shareholder in the North Eastern Railway Company did not further attend the Committee.' That being the case, I do not know that the House has any remedy in its hands. Though the Chairman considered himself disqualified to act, the proceedings of the Committee were not invalidated ab initio or in any part, and in preparing their Report the Committee came to the decision to throw out the Bill. I do not think the House has any action to take in the matter."—27 July [Vol. 5] 1922

Mr. A. J. Balfour: "That the Question be now put."

Mr. DEPUTY SPEAKER—

"No doubt the time allowed for the discussion of this Motion has been very short; but in considering the rights of a minority it is essential to take into account the use which the minority have made of the time at their disposal. I shall put the Question."—28 April [Vol. 3] 1640

On Colonel Hughes moving an Instruction:

Mr. DEPUTY SPEAKER—

"I have considered the terms of the Motion for an Instruction of which the hon. Member has given notice. The Bill to which it refers is an omnibus Bill, but I do not find that any one of the clauses deals with any matter cognate to the subject of the Instruction, which, therefore, cannot be entertained, not being in order."—29 April [Vol. 3] 1643

Mr. Macartney: "I wish to ask your ruling, Sir, on a point of Order connected with a Motion standing in the name of the hon. Member for South Armagh with respect to the establishment of an Irish Parliament. I wish to ask whether the discussion on that Motion will be in any way interfered with by the terms of the Motion standing in the name of the hon. Member for Caithness for to-night?"

Mr. DEPUTY SPEAKER—

"I must say, in reference to this question, on behalf of Mr. Speaker, that the matter was never brought before him at all till last Wednesday, and therefore the statements that have been made in the Press are quite unauthorised. The question on the Paper for to-day is so different in scope from that standing in the name of the hon. Member for South Armagh for next Friday, that the discussion of the latter Motion will not be prejudiced by any decision the House may come to on the former."—29 April [Vol. 3] 1658

RULINGS

Referring to Mr. Labouchere.

The CHAIRMAN—

"The hon. Gentleman is not to enter into the subject of the original Vote, except so far as it is necessary to illustrate the present Vote."—25 Feb [Vol. 1] 1318

Referring to Dr. Clark.

The CHAIRMAN—

Company Directors Votes in Divisions in Supply:—

The CHAIRMAN—

"That is not a question for the Chairman of the Committee to decide."

"That is a matter that has been questioned in the House."—4 March [Vol. 2] 90

Discussion raised on objection taken by Mr. Mac Neill to the votes of three Members on the Vote for Survey of the Victoria Nyanza Railway, because of their being Directors or Shareholders in the British East Africa Company.

The CHAIRMAN—

"It will be in accordance with the practice of the House if the three hon. Members now withdraw."—8 March [Vol. 2] 332

Referring to Sir Charles Fraser on Army Estimates in Supply,

The CHAIRMAN—

"The Motion before the Committee is that I report Progress and ask leave to sit again, and I must ask the hon. and gallant Gentleman to confine himself to that."—11 March [Vol. 2] 724

Referring to Mr. Morton:

The CHAIRMAN—

"The hon. Member is not entitled to enter into a general examination of the Treasury Chest on this Supplementary Estimate; he must confine himself to the purpose of the Supplementary Vote."

[Later] "The hon. Member is entitled to ask an explanation in these circumstances, but that is a totally different matter from reading the Report."—15 March [Vol. 2] 902, 903; Irrelevancy, 911

Referring to Mr. J. O'Connor and Mr. O'Kelly:

The CHAIRMAN—

"Hon. Members must obey the direction of the Chair. They have twice risen, and I tell them they are not entitled to intervene."

Mr. J. O'Connor remaining standing:

The CHAIRMAN—

"I must warn the hon. Member that, unless he yields to my direction and resumes and keeps his seat, I shall be compelled to name him to the House."—17 March [Vol. 2] 1153

Mr. Picton: "On the point of Order, Sir, may I ask, have you not on previous occasions ruled that on a Vote on Account it is not necessary to adhere strictly to the order of the Votes"?

The CHAIRMAN—

"If an hon. Member wishes to raise a question in reference to an item preceding that to which Notice has been given he will rise to bring that question before the Committee; but, the Committee having entered upon an item, discussion cannot go back again."—18 March [Vol. 2] 1250

Mr. A. J. Balfour: "May I put a question to you, Mr. Courtney, upon a point of Order? Could the order of Supply on Report be made to differ from the order in which the Votes in Supply were taken—in other words, could the Report of the Vote on Account be put after the Vote of the Supplementary Estimate for the Scotch Equivalent Grant"?

The CHAIRMAN—

"The Rule would be that the Report of Supply would follow the order in which the Votes were granted in Committee. Of course, by consent the order might be varied."—18 March [Vol. 2] 1293

On Mr. T. Ellis's withdrawal of an Amendment:

The CHAIRMAN—

"I would point out to the hon. Member that the most appropriate occasion on which to bring the question up again would not be on Clause 3, but in the form of a new clause. Is it your pleasure that the Amendment be withdrawn?"—11 April [Vol. 3] 1195

[cont.

Mr. Knox: "I think the Act will lose very materially by leaving out the 2nd clause, and I apprehend that it will be possible to amend this on the Report stage."

The CHAIRMAN—

"On the Report stage it would be competent for the hon. Member to propose any Amendment he likes of the kind he indicates; but we cannot now do something which would undo what the Committee has already done. The Committee must be consistent."—29 April [Vol. 3] 1720

Mr. Robertson: "I rise on a point of Order. If all the words proposed in the Amendment now before the House are left out, I am afraid my Amendment would be excluded."

The CHAIRMAN—

"It seems to me that the issues are precisely the same, that the object of the hon. Member is the object of the other hon. Member."

Mr. Robertson: "My object is, I submit, entirely different."

The CHAIRMAN—

"So far as the object of the hon. Member is to preserve the freedom of the House of Commons in future years, it is the same as that of the hon. Member for Edinburgh (Mr. Buchanan): if the object is to give the House of Commons power to set aside the arrangement this year, it is otherwise irregular."

Mr. Robertson: "My Amendment goes a long way beyond that of my hon. Friend. What I really want to do is to declare by this Act that it shall be in the power of the House of Commons at any time to pass a Resolution which should have the force of law, and should repeal the scheme in force under this Bill."

The CHAIRMAN—

"I never heard of such a novel suggestion. If the House of Commons wishes to do that, it already possesses the power without embracing it in an Act of Parliament. It should refuse to concur in a proposal it could immediately set aside. . . . It is so novel that it appears to be irregular. As far as I know Parliament has never passed an Act making a law which may be immediately repealed by one House."—2 May [Vol. 3] 1818

Mr. Hunter: "I ask your ruling, Sir, on a point of Order. Am I right in my opinion that a decision on a Motion to omit a sub-section precludes an Amendment being proposed to this sub-section? I have an Amendment to propose the omission of the words 'Parochial Boards in Scotland.'"

[cont.

The CHAIRMAN—

"The Question will be put in a form to preserve the possibility of such an Amendment if there is a desire to move it."

Mr. Esslemont: "I rise to Order, Sir. My Motion was to omit Sub-section 4."

The CHAIRMAN—

"The hon. Member for Aberdeen intimated his intention to move an Amendment altering the words 'Parochial Boards.' Consequently in putting the Question I did so in the form "That 'in distributing the sum of £50,000' stand part of the Clause." The Committee affirmed that Question, the words stand, and now the hon. Member for Aberdeen moves his Amendment."—3 May [Vol. 4] 60

Mr. A. J. Balfour: "I am unwilling to put hon. Gentlemen a second time in the position of breaking faith deliberately——"

Mr. Buchanan: I rise to Order. I beg to ask you, Sir, if the right hon. Gentleman is justified in using the words against hon. Gentlemen on this side that they broke faith deliberately?"

The CHAIRMAN—

"Whether the right hon. Gentleman is justified I do not know. It is perfectly consistent with Parliamentary usage."

Mr. Buchanan: "Do I take it from you, Sir, that the right hon. Gentleman was in Order in saying that hon. Gentlemen on this side deliberately broke faith?"

The CHAIRMAN—

"There are abundant precedents for such language."—5 May [Vol. 4] 209

The CHAIRMAN—

"I understand the hon. Member desires to move an Amendment to this Bill referring to the desirability of adopting the representative principle in the Councils. The Preamble is always taken last, in order that it may be in perfect consistence with the Bill in its final shape. The Preamble would not be consistent with the Bill in its final shape if amended as proposed, and therefore the Amendment would be out of Order."—6 May [Vol. 4] 312

Sir W. Foster: "My point is this—the right hon. Gentleman has endeavoured to misrepresent what I said."

The CHAIRMAN—

"Order, order!"

Mr. J. Chamberlain: "I submit to you, Sir, if that is in Order? The hon. Member says that I have endeavoured to misrepresent what he said"
